

To Make Sure That Your New Gown

—whether it be the "creation" of a gown-maker known to fame, or just a quiet, simple little gown, for, Oh, a number of occasions—church, calling, luncheons—to make sure that it shall have that intangible, indescribable, elusive quality called "Style" you should first pay your undivided attention to the corset over which it is to be fitted!

..THE.. PARESIANA CORSETS "THEY LACE IN FRONT"

You know, of course, that your new gown must have long lines! That is a preachment you've learned by heart! And you know that, whether you are slender or stout, you must have the look of slenderness; and, indeed, you want to look slender and you want to be comfortable at the same time!

Don't Begin With the Gown, But the Corset!

Now, it is not a difficult thing for a competent dressmaker to cut a gown on the lines demanded by Fashion this season; but, if you have neglected your corset, and, when the gown is to be fitted, the dressmaker finds bulging hips; surplus, ugly flesh at thigh, or angles which need rounding, why, you cannot blame her if the gown, when complete, does not give you that intangible, indescribable, elusive, but all-important quality, "Style!" You expected to have it, and you are disappointed!

So, first be carefully, accurately, intelligently fitted with the proper corset (there's the right model in the PARESIANA for you), then give your attention to your gown, and you'll stand the biggest kind of a chance of being pleased and satisfied with it when it is complete! Sold exclusively by Eugene Edge.

Shoe Styles are Attractive this Season

Seldom have we been able to show women's fall boots in so entirely attractive, unique and different designs, each reflecting particular good taste on the part of the maker.

Our John Kelly styles, made to our special order, are more beautiful than ever before. We invite our friends to see them. $3.00 to $4.00.

Costs no More for 3 month's Wear

You'll pay no more to Wunderhose the family than if you had bought the ordinary, easily wearoutable stocking, and the decided advantage trebles their value. Wunderhose are soft, flexible, wonderfully absorbent, giving comfort to perspiring feet, but most of all four pairs are warranted to wear 3 months without darning in heel, sole or toe.

IN SOCIAL CIRCLES

The highest social event of the season was the formal opening of the elegant new club rooms of the Owl Club, on Friday evening. The reception hall, library, billiard room and dance hall were thrown open to the guests, and these spacious apartments in their handsome new furnishings made a splendid appearance, and are a credit to the artistic taste of the young men who compose the membership of the club. Rich velvet rugs and art squares adorn the polished floors, curtains and portiers lend graceful draping to the windows and doors, and massive tables, chairs, book cases and leather couches complete the handsome library; the billiard room is complete and comfortable and the large dance hall with its grand new piano, is one of the nicest in the city. Potted ferns and palms, and vases of cut flowers were prettily arranged throughout the suite. Punch was served from a sparkling bowl embedded in ferns, and a stringed orchestra played sweetly during the entire evening. Programs for the dance were prettily embossed with "Owl Heads," and with green silken cords and pencils carried out the "owl colors." The grand march started at 10 o'clock and was led by the popular president of the club, Mr. Robt. S. Webb Jr. with Miss Alberta Adams. The entire affair was most pleasant, and a brilliant social event in every way.

Monday afternoon at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McKenzie, Miss Kathline Sims entertained quite a large party of her little friends, the occasion being the celebration of the ninth birthday of the dainty little hostess. Kathline is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Sims Jr. and because of her sweet, loving disposition wins everybody for her friend. And so it was that nearly a half hundred little guests were romping and playing beneath the wide spreading oaks on the spacious lawn on Monday, at the "birthday party." When welcome had been given at the gate, the children were refreshed with punch, dipped by Miss Manford and Miss Agnes Kinnard, after which they proceeded to have a good time. Games of croquet were enjoyed and a hoop race was lots of fun. The birthday cake with nine pink tapers sparkling amid a wreath of white rose buds was arranged on a dainty lace covered table on the veranda, and the mysterious loaf was cut by the little folks. Tissue bags filled with goodies and tied with pink ribbons were given to each guest, and cream and cake bountifully served. Pretty birthday gifts for Kathline were banked high on a table, and with each gift the wish for many happy returns of the day.

Miss Mary Roman was hostess to the J. A. O. club on Tuesday from 5 to 7 p. m. The girls were met by the hostess and her mother, Mrs. W. B. Roman, and invited into the pretty parlor where tables were arranged for the progressive "forty-two." Hand painted score cards were distributed, and the game was begun. Lively interest was evident from start to finish, and when the bell sounded on the last game a pretty book was awarded to Miss Willie McDougald as the successful contestant. Pineapple sherbet and cake were served and was a refreshing and pleasing finale to this affair.

Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, the J. A. O. club met with Miss Nellie Cole, and this fact is an assurance that one of the most pleasant club parties of the year was enjoyed. Pretty score cards and table markers added interest to the progressive game of dominoes. Miss Pauline Webb was winner of the highest score, and received the prize, a point lace collar. Fruit salad with whipped cream and cake was served at the close of the game.

A "box party" enjoyed the play at the tent on Thursday evening. The personnel was as follows: Misses Jessie and Cora Garth, Hettie Smith, Fannie Fountain, Alma and Nellie Cole, Pauline Webb and Rowena Rhodes. Messrs. Osborn Johnson, Walter Coulter, Jack Gordon, George Brandon, Larrie Stevens, Bob Hearne, Jim James and Will Saunders.

The Women's Club begins its fall term on Wednesday October 6th. The president, Mrs. L. L. McInnis is preparing a program for the first meeting which is known as "President's Day." With the large list of new members, the new name and new purposes, the club is starting out with great promise for the coming year.

The Mardi Cercle, will be called for reorganization with the president Miss Fannie Fountain, early in October.
